● Día 1 · UK - Vággar

Arrive at UK departure airport ready to check-in for flight to Vággar. Arrive in Vággar and taken by bus to the hotel. An introductory meeting, which is followed by a sightseeing tour by bus. Vággar is one of the biggest of the Faroe Islands, and measures 178 square kilometres. Arrive back at the hotel in time for evening dinner at the hotel. Overnight stay.

● Día 2 · Vággar - Vestmanna - Streymoy - Eysturoy - Gjógv

Breakfast at the hotel. Start the day by bus with our guide and head to Vestmanna passing through Faroe Islands' first subsea tunnel. Then take a boat tour to the magnificent Vestmanna birdcliffs. Sail close to the almost 2.000 feet high vertical cliffs, where birds such as puffins, guillemots, fulmars and kittewakes nest each summer. Then visit the Saga museum and get a great overview of the islands' history. Lunch in the restaurant and then continue the journey through Streymoy, Eysturoy and arrive in the charming village of Gjógv, ready for dinner. Overnight stay.

● Día 3 · Gjógv - Borðoy - Kunoy - Klaksvík - Gjógv

Breakfast at the hotel. Continue the journey with sightseeing on the northern islands of Borðoy and Kunoy. These islands are known for their high mountains and here visit big towns, including Klaksvík and traditional smaller villages. Lunch in Klaksvík and then continue the sightseeing on these wonderful islands, before heading back to the hotel for dinner. Overnight stay.

● Día 4 · Gjógv - Eysturoy - Saksun - Eysturoy - Streymoy - Tórshavn

Breakfast at the hotel. Head towards Eiði, passing the highest mountain on the Faroe Islands - Slættaratindur. At 880 metres, its name means "flat summit". From here cross over the Atlantic bridge to Tjørnuvík and later to Saksun, visiting the old farm, Dúvugaroar. Lunch and then pass the old whaling station at Áir, before arriving in the capital Tórshavn. Dinner in a restaurant and overnight stay in the city.

● Día 5 · Torshavn

Breakfast at the hotel. Start the day with a sightseeing bus tour with guide and get a great overview of Tórshavn's, along with its history and architecture. Continue to Tinganes and Fort Skansin, which is topped with a little lighthouse and four 18th century cannons. Lunch in Tórshavn. Continue to Kirkjubour - the old cultural centre of the Faroe Islands. Visit the 900-year-old Roystovan, where the King's yeoman still lives after 17 generations and see the ruins of St. Magnus Cathedral, which is regarded as one of the largest cultural attractions. Lunch in Tórshavn and the rest of the afternoon free to enjoy the city. Overnight stay.* *A farewell dinner is available at the Aarstova Restaurant for an additional fee.

● Día 6 · Torshavn - Vággar

Breakfast at the hotel. Return to Vággar by bus and take a boat trip with "Lakeside". This exciting vessel gets up close to the beautiful waterfall Bøsdalafossur. As the water thunders down, get a chance to see this wonderful natural spectacle. Lunch at Hotel Vággar and transfer to the airport for return flight to UK.
